

FRANK TALK

A WEEKLY ENTERTAINMENT MAGAZINE

Greetings:

If you're a visitor to FRANK TALK online, you're probably quite familiar with our magazine. We have been in existence for almost eight years. It is a weekly publication that is distributed throughout a 10-county area in the tri-states of Michigan, Ohio, and Indiana. It is not a newspaper nor is it a publication containing only ads!

FRANK TALK is just what its name implies. It's an entertainment magazine! With almost three dozen regular feature writers, FRANK TALK has more writers than many metropolitan newspapers or magazines. Our writers share the trials and tribulations and happenings of their own lives with our many readers.

Unfortunately, economic conditions made it necessary to start charging for the printed copy of our magazine approximately three years ago. We presently charge 50¢ per copy at locations throughout the tri-state area of Michigan, Ohio and Indiana. During the past three years, we continued to provide our entire magazine free of charge on the Internet.

On September 1, 2009, we started charging our online readers a nominal sum. This is not a decision we wanted to make, but once again economic conditions virtually made the decision for us!

The cost of subscribing to the online version of FRANK TALK is $20.00 per year. The over-the-counter cost of 52 issues of our magazine would be $26.00. However, the online version does save printing costs and we are passing those savings along to you.

Accessing the current version as well as all the archives will require the use of a password. We will send you a password after we receive your subscription fee. We do not accept credit cards, but we do accept either cash, checks, or money orders.

If you have any questions or comments, feel free to e-mail me personally at jim@franktalkonline.com. Our mailing address is FRANK TALK, PO Box 659, Reading, MI. 49274.

Sincerely,

Jim Frank
